ATTACHMENT

1. On March 25, 2004 the undersigned filed by Express Mail a Revocation of Power of Attorney with New Power of Attorney and Change of Correspondence Address in the instant application. The Revocation contained a typographical error in the identification of the application number. Instead of identifying application number 10/662,257, assigned to Massachusetts Institute of Technology, the Revocation filed on March 25, 2004 erroneously identified the instant application, application number 10/622,257, assigned to the Honeywell Corporation.
2. The Revocation filed on March 25, 2004 was accepted by the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office despite the fact that Ms. Rita M. Filipowicz, who signed the Revocation, is not a representative of the Honeywell Corporation.
3. The undersigned respectfully requests that the correspondence address for the instant application revert to the original correspondence address as noted on this paper and that the Power of Attorney to the Honeywell Law Department be reinstated.
